

Public Bulletin Board and Information Counter Policy

Materials for the bulletin board and information displays may be submitted by nonprofit organizations for civic, educational, or cultural purposes. Such organizations may submit literature publicizing a specific event. Advertising for businesses or organizations-for-profit will not be posted. The director must approve all postings and may prohibit postings, which do not meet library standards. The Library will not be responsible for returning materials.

Adopted November 9, 2016