No Exit by Taylor Adams

On her way to Utah to see her dying mother, college student Darby Thorne gets caught in a fierce blizzard in the mountains of Colorado. With the roads impassable, she's forced to wait out the storm at a remote highway rest stop. Inside are some vending machines, a coffee maker, and four complete strangers.

Desperate to find a signal to call home, Darby goes back out into the storm . . . and makes a horrifying discovery. In the back of the van parked next to her car, a little girl is locked in an animal crate.

Who is the child? Why has she been taken? And how can Darby save her?

Book Club is currently meeting in person!

Zoom is an option for members who would like to join the group from a remote location.

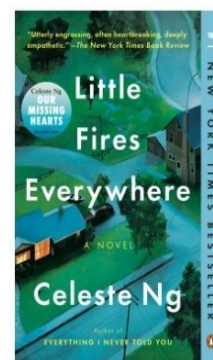

Monthly Book Club details will be emailed and posted on Facebook.

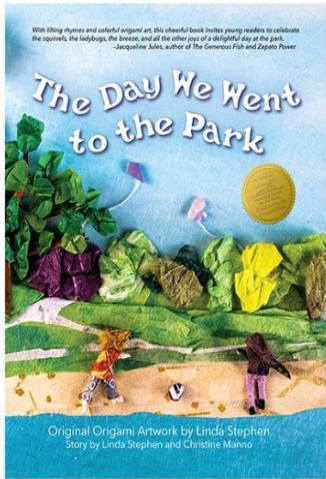

Evening Book Club

Wednesday, November 16 @ 5:30 PM

Little Fires Everywhere by Celeste Ng

In Shaker Heights, a placid, progressive suburb of Cleveland, everything is planned—from the layout of the winding roads, to the colors of the houses, to the successful lives its residents will go on to lead. And no one embodies this spirit more than Elena Richardson, whose guiding principle is playing by the rules. Enter Mia Warren—an enigmatic artist and single mother—who arrives in this idyllic bubble with her teenaged daughter Pearl, and rents a house from the Richardsons. Soon Mia and Pearl become more than tenants: all four Richardson children are drawn to the mother-daughter pair. But Mia carries with her a mysterious past and a disregard for the status quo that threatens to upend this carefully ordered community.

"Illustrations in Origami"

Art exhibit in Kimmel Gallery

November 1-29

Linda Stephen

Origami artist, illustrator and author Linda Stephen presents "Illustrations in Origami" in November in the Kimmel Gallery inside the Morton-James Public Library in Nebraska City. This exhibit of more than 20 origami landscapes and cityscapes by Linda Stephen includes picture book illustrations and nationally award-winning artworks

The framed 3D wall art is created entirely from origami (folded paper) sculptures and layered washi handmade Japanese papers. Scenes include the art used for illustrating the origami picture book "The Day We Went to the Park", which won the 2021 Nebraska Book Award for Illustration.

Find the book at the library!

About the artist/illustrator:

Nationally award-winning paper artist Linda Stephen teaches origami and Japanese paper arts to ages 3 to 93. She creates collaborative community art with nonprofits, cities, arts centers, and schools across the country. Her fine art origami artworks are part of collections around the world. Stephen lived in Japan for six years and has been collecting Japanese handmade papers for 25 years. She is the illustrator and co-author of the picture book "The Day We Went to the Park", which won the 2021 Nebraska Book Award for Illustration.

Who Is Eligible?

Children under the age of five
in Nebraska City

What Are My Responsibilities?

1. Be a resident of Nebraska City
2. Submit an official registration form, completely filled out by the authorized adult.
3. Notify Morton-James Public Library any time your address changes. Books are mailed to the address listed on the account. Note: If the child's address changes, you must contact your friends at the address on this brochure in order to continue receiving books.
4. Read with your child and have fun!

What Is It?

Each month a new, carefully selected book will be mailed in your child's name directly to your home. The first book is always the children's classic The Little Engine That Could™. Best of all it is a FREE GIFT to your child through our partnership with local organizations! There is no cost or obligation to your family.

When Will I Receive Books?

Eight to ten weeks after your registration form has been received, books will begin arriving at your home and will continue until your child turns five or you move out of the covered area.

Sign up your child today! Simply fill out the form below and mail to:
